Dear Parents/Carers,

Coronavirus Further Update

Further to my letter earlier today the situation continues to change at pace and the very latest advice was communicated to me this evening. With effect from tomorrow if you, or a member of your household falls within the vulnerable group category (see link below) you are advised to "socially distance" yourself.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/covid-19-guidance-on-socialdistancing-and-for-vulnerable-people/guidance-on-social-distancing-foreveryone-in-the-uk-and-protecting-older-people-and-vulnerable-adults>

14 day self-isolation for high temperature and/or new continuous cough remains in place. Information on social distancing and self-isolation can be found by following the links:

If your child falls into the vulnerable category the advice is to keep them off school until further notice. Should this be the case for your child/children, please ring the office by 9am in the morning and leave a message with Mrs Harman.

The updated advice will no doubt mean that more school staff and children will be absent tomorrow. I will be reviewing the staffing situation later this evening, but from my initial conversations with staff we should be open tomorrow. Any changes will obviously be communicated to you by text.

As I mentioned in my earlier letter, we are working on home learning materials in the eventuality of a full school closure. Please stay safe. Thank you again for your understanding and patience.

Yours sincerely,

Dean Taylor
Headteacher
